LOCAL MEASURES PASSED

The Senate Acted Upon a Number Late Yesterday Afternoon.

The Snow and Ice Bill and That Extending the Metropolitan Railroad Among Them, With Amendments.

The Senate disposed of a number of bil's of interest to people of the District of Columbia yesterday. Mr. Gallinger asked unanimous consent that at 4:30 o'clock the Senate proceed to the consideration of pension bills that were not objected to, and Mr. Daniel added the request that after such business was disposed of the Senate proceed to the consideration of House bills on the calendar.

House bill 3264, to increase the pension of Mrs. Virginia E. Turtle of this city to $40 per month, was passed. Mrs. Turtle is the widow of Major Thomas Turtle, late of the corps of engineers, U. S. A.

The Snow and Ice Bill.

House bill 7469 for the removal of snow and ice from the sidewalks, crosswalks and gutters in the District of Columbia was passed, with amendments. Mr. McMillan moved to insert the word "agent" after the word "owner" wherever it occurred in the House bill, making the agent equally responsible for the enforcement of the law. Messrs. McMillan, Faulkner and Baker were appointed conferees on the bill on the part of the Senate and were instructed to insist upon the amendment offered by Mr. McMilan. As passed by the Senate the bill provides: "That the owner, agent, or tenant of each house or other building or lot or lots of ground in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and in such other part or parts of the District of Columbia as the Commissioners of said District shall from time to time designate, shall, within the first four hours of daylight after every fall of snow, cause the same to be removed entirely from off the paved sidewalks opposite each house, building, lot, or land under the penalty of $1 for each lot for every such neglect, to be paid by the said owner, agent, or tenant; and such owner, agent, or tenant shall, under a like penalty, within five days after a notice to do alty, within five days after a notice to do so by the Commissioners, clean off and remove, or cause to be cleaned off and removed, all dirt, sand, gravel, or other refuse matter that may fall or be washed upon any paved sidewalk, roadway, or alley inside the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and in such other part or any paved sidewalk of the part of the District of Columbia as the parts of the District of Columbia as the ommissioners of said District shall from time to time designate.

"Section 2. That in case the sidewalks are covered with ice the owner, agent or ten-ant of any building, lot or lots of ground in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and in such other part or parts of the District of Columbia as the Commissioners of the said District shall from time to time designate, shall promtly cause the paved sidewalks or paved portions of the sidewalk opposite his or her or their premises to be a transhis or her or their premises to be strewn with ashes, send, sawdust or some other suitable substance that will insure or contribute to the safety of pedestrians, under the penalty of $1 for each lot for every neglect, to be paid by the said owner, agent or tenant agent or tenant.

"Section 3. That in case the owner, agent or tenant of any house, lot, building or land shall neglect to comply with any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this act, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to cause the removal of snew and ice, or any dirt, sand or gravel from all paved sidewalks and alleys in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and in such other part or parts of the District of Columbia as the Commissioners of said District shall from time to time designate, wherever there has been a failure on the part of the owner. been a failure on the part of the owner, agent or tenant as aforesaid to remove the same; and the cost of such removal, by or der and under the direction of the said Commissioners, shall be assessed as a tax against the property to which the sidewalks in question belong, for the purposes of this act, and the said tax so assessed shalf be carried to the regular tax roll of the District aforesaid, and shall be col-lected in the manner provided for the col-lection of other taxes.

Tax Sale Certificate Bill Goes Over. Mr. Faulkner desired to pass House bill 3610, for the relief of holders of District of Columbia tax sale certificates, but Mr. Cockrell said he had not had time to examine the bill, and asked that it go over.

"I have been sitting here all evening," said Mr. Faulkner, "waiting to answer any said Mr. Faulkner, 'waiting to answer any question which might be asked in relation to that bill, which has been indorsed by all the officials of the District of Columbia."

Mr. Cockrell declined to withdraw his Metropolitan Railroad Extension. The bill to authorize the extension of the lines of the Metropolitan Railroad Company of the District of Columbia, which has passed the House of Representatives, was passed by the Senate, with an amend-ment, so that as passed the bill reads as

The train when it left Washington had on board about eighty passengers, men, women and children. It was going at its usual rate of speed, and had slowed up some as it approached the power house, when Motorman Gregg saw a large black object on the track about twenty yards ahead. He immediately reversed the motor and put the brakes hard down, but the train was too close to the huge mass of track. In a moment it was struck. The lights went out, the train rolled over on the side and the motor car across the track. For a moment all was quiet; then rang out on the midnight air the shricks of the ter-rer-stricken women and children. Men climbed out of the cars by every available opening, only to return for the women and children, who were frantic with fright. It took but a short while to rescue all, but it could hardly be realized that in such an accident no one was killed.

The railroad authorities immediately had another train made up, and the injured and other passengers were taken to their homes in Alexandria. Today the injured are doing nicely.

All the glass in both of the cars was broken out. In the trailer the passengers on one side were thrown violently on those on the other side, and it is nothing short of a miracle that completely and the state of a miracle that completely and the state of the

Motorman Gregg said, in speaking of the accident, that it was one of the orders of the company to shut off the current just before reaching the point where he struck the boulders, and the passengers all say the did this, as they noticed a perceptible decrease in the speed of the train. The train was running about twenty miles an hour when it struck the obstruction.

"I saw the boulder ahead," said Motorman Gregg, "and immediately reversed the forts on the handbrake, but it was too late.

The motor car was knocked across the track, and it was some time before Motor-man Gregg could extricate himself from the wreck. No blame is attached to the

Augusta M. Martin and others have filed a bill in equity against Ellen V. Crocker and others, praying for the partition of the estate of the late Annie M. Carpenter.

Major Moore has received a letter fro Miss Mabel Silsby at Little Hocking, Ohio, asking for information concerning the whereabouts of relatives of Fannie Nelson. She has three uncles, Benjamin, Edward and John Nelson, who are supposed to be living in this city. Miss Nelson has not seen her relatives since she was an fant, and she is living with strangers in the Ohio town.

Mrs. Jennie Goldberg, who lives at No. 151 3d street, Chester, Pa., has written to Major Moore, asking that her husband, Jacob Goldberg, be located. Her husband, who, she says, had red hair, deserted her, leaving her penniless, she says, and rumor has it that he eloped with a girl, and has come here to live. He is a shoemaker by Detective George Boyd, who has been a Fortress Monroe for two weeks on police lusiness, has returned home. The weather there, he says, has been much milder than here. The effects of the snow storm were felt there, he says, and after the high winds the beach was covered with crabs, as well as a few fish and eels. The crab and fish were gathered by rivermen for market.

At the house of Maria Jones, No. 446 Washington street, there was a slight fire about 6 o'clock yesterday. Some wash clothes left near the stove to dry were burned. No. 6 engine company went to the house on a local call. The fire destroyed about $5 worth of clothing.

The police lieutenants made several reports this morning of work to be done by the authorities. Four dangerous holes on Harrison avenue southeast, and broken payements at 3d and C streets southwest and on Florida avenue between 7th and 8th streets were reported. A leaky hydrant at 4th and B streets southeast and a dangerous manhole at Florida avenue and 8th street also need attention.

The police of the eighth precinct made two trips to Freedmen's Hospital yester-day. George Jackson, colered, was taken there about 3:30 o'clock, suffering from severe injuries received by falling from the second story of a house on New Hampshire avenue where he was working. He lives at 417 Wilson street. Three hours later Clementine Shackelford, colored, was taken to the hospital because she was sick on the street near Florida avenue and 8th street. Her home is at No. 2010 8th street.

BATTLE SHIP INDIANA.

Returned for Inspection and Read-justment of Her Machinery. Word was received at the Navy De partment last evening that the battle ship Indiana, which started out from Hampton Roads Thursday morning with Admiral Bunce's squadron to participate in the mock blockade of the port of Charleston, returned to Hampton Roads unexpectedly vesterday afternoon.

It turned out that no accident had occurred, but that the -mechanism to keep the big turrets from moving had again the big turrets from moving had again shown signs of weakness, and Capt. Taylor had put back as a matter of precaution. The ship showed the same weakness last fall during the northern cruise.

Acting Secretary McAdoo made a statement on the subject, in which he said:

"When the Indiana went out this time the had with her a new locking device for she had with her a new locking device for her turrets, lately put on at New York, and which was intended to remedy the trouble she had the last time she put to and which was intended to remedy the trouble she had the last time she put to sea in heavy weather. This present device has three times the strength of the former one. Very properly, the officers of the ship have been cautious and observant as to its workings, and she has returned to the roads for a further inspection of it and possible readjustment. Her former trouble was occasioned, to some extent, by her rolling in the very heavy sea which she hen encountered, and it is possible she again met unusually rough sea. When the Indiana and Massachusetts were designed they had on, as is absolutely necessary for them, bilge keels, but very unfortunately all the docks up to the one just completed at New York were not of sufficient capacity to dock any of these ships with bilge keels, but anticipating the construction and finishing the dock at New York, the department some time ago ordered bilge keels to be made ready for all of these ships, and such keels will be placed in position as soon as possible.

"Great Britain had a similar experience with ber battle ships before such keels were put on, and the case of the Resolution is well known to the profession all over the world. The department expects to have the Indiana again at sea in a few days."
